HORSE SENSE

Two show stallions are arguing over who should take best of breed. The first says, "Granted you are the closest I have ever seen to my equal, but my legs are just a bit straighter than yours, and, you know, the legs are of prime importance. No foot, no horse!"

The second horse says, "I'll allow your legs are just a bit better than mine, but mine are the legs I was born with. I know for a fact you had thousands of dollars of corrective work. Your foals will inherit your natural legs, not your genius farrier!"

The first horse mulls this for a moment, then says, "You're right. I stand corrected."

BEATEN AT YOUR OWN GAME

A man runs into a friend at the gas station late one afternoon. "Hey, what's up?" said the friend. The man replies sullenly, "Not much, ... my wife beat me up this morning."

"Your wife beat you up?" the other asks.

"Yeah," said the man, "she hadn't done it for a long time, but she used to beat me up every morning."

"Don't you think you should get some help?... You know, report this to the police or something?" the other replies earnestly.

Looking his friend right in the eye he says, "Why would I do that? I like it when she gets up before I do. She might make me breakfast."

Moments in time

THE HISTORY CHANNEL

* On July 22, 1893, Katharine Lee Bates wrote the lyrics to "America the Beautiful" after admiring the view from the top of Pikes Peak in Colorado. The song's music was composed by Samuel A. Ward, a church organist and choirmaster in Newark, N.J. The two never met in person.

* On July 23, 1980, Pham Tuan became the first Vietnamese citizen as well as the first Asian in space when he flew on board the Soyuz 37 mission as an Inter-cosmos Research Cosmonaut. His career awards included the rare distinction of being one of the few foreigners to receive the title Hero of the Soviet Union.

* On July 24, 1915, the passenger ship SS Eastland capsized while tied to a dock in the Chicago River, killing a total of 844 passengers and crew in the largest loss of life disaster from a single shipwreck on the Great Lakes.

I'VE READ THE LAST PAGE OF THE BIBLE, IT'S ALL GOING TO TURN OUT ALRIGHT - BILLY GRAHAM

* On July 25, 2000, George Bush announced his selection of former Secretary of Defense Dick Cheney to be his running mate on the Republican presidential ticket. Cheney had worked under all five presidential administrations between 1969 and 1993, and Bush described him as qualified, respected and someone who shared his vision for America.

* On July 26, 1952, Argentina's first lady, Eva Peron, died of cancer at the age of 33. Shortly before her passing, she had been given the title of "Spiritual Leader of the Nation of Argentina" by the Argentine Congress, and she was also accorded a state funeral, which was generally reserved for heads of state.

* On July 27, 1866, the first permanent transatlantic telegraph cable was successfully completed, reaching from Valentia Island, Ireland, to Heart's Content, Newfoundland.

* On July 28, 2018, Wendy Tuck of Australia became the first female captain to win the Clipper Round the World Yacht Race. Afterward, in an interview with the Daily Telegraph, she said, "If one little girl sees this, sees it can be done and has a go, that will be what matters to me."

Apache Junction Chamber of Commerce "2011 Small Business of the Year Award Winner"

If you've ever wanted to make a little or a lot of money online, you need to hear this.

I mentioned a few times in this column, a digital product called The Roadmap. It's actually a digital training course about how anyone can learn digital marketing and begin making money online.

One of the huge benefits of buying this course is it comes with Master Resale Rights. A license that lets you own and sell the course as your own AND make 100% of the profit.

The creators of this course thought they would sell only a few thousand people this course. They have greatly exceeded their expectations. This month, they just hit 50,000 sales! This course costs $497, bringing in $24,850,000 in revenue.

That's almost 25 million dollars divided among everyone who bought and is selling the course to others. They've done this in just over a year and a half.

The Roadmap is still selling, but another course is coming from the same people. Here's why I'm telling you this now. If you own The Roadmap, before they launch the new course, you get it for FREE. You also have the right to sell the course and make an 85% commission without having to pay for the course. We know the course will cost at least $497, but maybe more.

Make Money On Purpose

"The Roadmap hits 50,000" with Mike Lamb

This type of digital product is the fastest way of earning income online.

I shared the Roadmap course and had my first sale the same day. Since then, I've sold the course to others and made over $9,000.

Others have been more ambitious. One person I know has made 151 sales and earned $75,047. Another person, a woman who promoted only on Instagram, has sold this course to 904 people in just seven months, banking over 450K by promoting a little digital course. A course that is certainly changing lives and helping others to become financially free.

I can tell you the clock is ticking. Once the new course launches, everyone will have to pay for it—except those who already own The Roadmap.

If you're at all interested in learning how to create digital income and make money on the Internet, you can't go wrong buying The Roadmap. See RoadmapGlobal.com

The world of digital marketing is an eye opener and there is so much opportunity.

Believe it or not, the fastest-growing group of marketers online is SENIORS. Yes, that's right.

If you don't want to be left out of the kind of automatic income you can make, check out The Roadmap and bag that new free course, too. RoadmapGlobal.com

LAWS OF PARENTHOOD

There is the Law of Gravity ...
And then, there is the Law of Parenthood

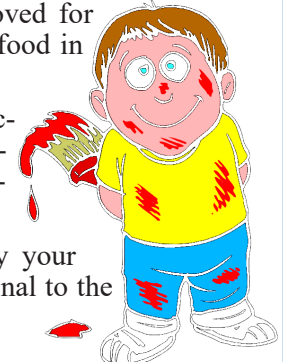

- ⌘ A child's behavior will improve in proportion to the distance she is away from the parent.
- ⌘ Two is equal to two, except when referring to time. Two minutes of tantrum lasts 20 times as long as two minutes of quiet time.

- ⌘ The choice of a preschooler's best friend corresponds directly to the distance the friend lives from your house.
- ⌘ A child's enjoyment of a popular entertainment will be inversely proportionate to the parent's enjoyment.

⌘ A child will always eat exactly what she has loved for the past year unless it is the only food in the fridge.

- ⌘ The ease with which a toddler acquires the ability to say a word increases with its likelihood to embarrass a sailor.
- ⌘ The chance of a surprise visit by your parents-in-law is directly proportional to the size of the mess in your home.

OBSCURER AND OBSOLETE FACTS

It would take half the people in the United States between the ages of 18 and 45 to run the nation's telephone system if it were not computerized.

Private automobiles were forbidden on the island of Bermuda until 1948. This is why there are still so many bicycles there today.

In Idaho it is forbidden to give another person a box of candy that weighs more than 50 pounds.

Until 1834, it was forbidden for any soldier or unit of the Army to carry the American flag into battle. The privilege was awarded to artillery units only.

A Venetian law states that all gondolas must be painted black. The only exceptions are gondolas belonging to public officials.

In San Salvador drunk driving is punishable by death before a firing squad.

A wedding ring is exempt from inclusion among the assets in a bankrupt estate, no matter how much the bankrupt person owes.

"Helping you to Die Young, as late in life as possible!"

VETERANS ★ POST ★

by Freddy Groves

STEALING ... WHICH IS WORSE?

I don't know which is worse: stealing millions of dollars from the VA or stealing pain drugs from patients. In one case, a pair of holistic health care center co-owners submitted claims for reimbursement for $1.9 million in treatments before they were nabbed for health care fraud, conspiracy and filing false claims. Advertised as a chiropractor with several branch offices, the thieves billed for services that never occurred, such as hot and cold therapy, acupuncture (that was actually massages) done by others, treatments that weren't medically necessary and more.

Then there's the elderly veteran who had two small businesses. On the one hand, he claimed individual unemployability benefits from the VA (which is given when a veteran gets money equal to a 100% disability rating because he can't work). On the other hand, the guy applied for a service-disabled veteran-owned rating for his two businesses, stating that he was the owner, worked lots of hours ... and received millions of dollars in VA small business contracts. Then he applied for Social Security disability and raked in money from that, claiming he couldn't work. He'll be paying back a lot of money.

As bad as that was, this is much worse: A VA nurse pleaded guilty to taking drugs that were intended for ill and dying patients in intensive care. Most of the time she would give only a partial dose to the patient and take the rest herself. In one case, she did this 19 times over nine days to a patient. Can you imagine?

She also volunteered to take care of a particular patient so she could steal the patient's drugs. The three drugs in question were fentanyl (50 to 100 times more potent than morphine and heroin), hydromorphone (two to eight times stronger than morphine) and oxycodone, all pain medications. Maximum prison time for these crimes could be only four years. That's shameful. For denying sick and dying patients their pain medication, she deserves much more punishment than that.
