WHY PARENTS HAVE GREY HAIR

The boss's most valued employee had phoned in sick, so he dialed the employee's home and was greeted with a child's whisper. "Hello?" he asked. "Is your mom-my or daddy home?"

"Yes," whispered the small voice. "May I talk with one of them?"

The child whispered, "No." Surprised and wanting to talk with an adult, the boss asked, "Is anybody else there?"

"Yes," whispered the child, "a policeman".

Wondering what a cop would be doing at his employee's home, the boss asked, "May I speak with the policeman?"

"No, he's busy", whispered the child.

"Busy doing what?"

"Talking to the Fireman," came the whispered answer.

Hearing a loud noise over the phone, the boss asked, "What's going on there?"

"The search team just landed a helicopter." answered the whispering voice.

Alarmed, the boss asked, "What are they searching for?"

Still whispering, the young voice replied with a muffled giggle... "ME."

THE HISTORY CHANNEL

* On Nov. 11, 1831, Nat Turner, an American slave and educated minister who believed that he'd been chosen by God to lead his people into freedom, was hanged in Jerusalem, Virginia, for leading a revolt with 75 followers through Southampton County, killing about 60 white people.

* On Nov. 12, 1969, investigative journalist Seymour Hersh revealed the extent of the U.S. Army's charges against 1st Lt. William L. Calley at My Lai, Vietnam, in a cable picked up by more than 30 newspapers, saying that "The Army says he [Calley] deliberately murdered at least 109 Vietnamese civilians during a search-and-destroy mission in March 1968, in a Viet Cong stronghold known as 'Pinkville.'"

* On Nov. 14, 1882, outlaw Frank "Buckskin" Leslie shot and killed Billy "The Kid" Claiborne, who had publicly challenged him, in Tombstone, Arizona.

AS MUCH AS PEOPLE TRY TO REJECT TRUTH, THERE IS OVERWHELMING EVIDENCE OF IT IN THE LIFE OF CHRIST

* On Nov. 13, 1979, Philadelphia 76ers center Darryl Dawkins leaped over Kansas City Kings forward Bill Robinzine for a memorable slam dunk that shattered the fiberglass backboard. His equally memorable comment on the move, which was not his last and the sound of which spectators likened to a bomb going off: "It wasn't really a safe thing to do, but it was a Darryl Dawkins thing to do."

* On Nov. 15, 1984, Baby Fae, a month old infant who received the world's first baboon heart transplant, died at California's Loma Linda University 20 days after the operation. Three other people had received animal heart transplants, but none survived longer than a few days.

* On Nov. 16, 2001, British author J.K. Rowling's most famous and beloved creation, the bespectacled boy wizard Harry Potter (played by Daniel Radcliffe in his first major role), made his silver-screen debut in "Harry Potter and the Sorcerer's Stone," which went on to become one of the highest-grossing movies in history.

* On Nov. 17, 1903, the Russian Social Democratic Labour Party split into two factions: the majority Bolsheviks and minority Mensheviks. The Bolsheviks went on to become the Communist Party of the Soviet Union.

NEVER HAD A CHANCE

An applicant walked into the manager's office. The manager sighed and said, "Your right on time, just like Charlie."

The applicant asked, "Who?"

The manager responded, "Charlie. He's a guy who did everything right all the time."

"Well," said the job seeker, "I don't know about that. Everybody makes mistakes."

"Not Charlie," continued the manager. "He had a memory like a computer and he could fix anything. Charlie could do everything right."

"Wow," said the applicant, "He was something special."

"Wait, there's more," the manager continued, "Charlie could sing and dance and play the piano. He was an professional athlete. Women adored him."

He never argued and his clothes were always neat and pressed. He knew all about wine, which foods to order and which fork to eat them with. He was the perfect man!

"Amazing," replied the sales-man. "Where did you meet him?"

"I never did!" replied the manager, "I married his ex-wife."

TOSS ME A MULLET, WILLYA?

Once a year, thousands of Floridians stand at the state line and toss dead fish into Alabama. It's the annual Mullet Toss hosted by Flora-Bama Beach Bar in Pensacola.

The bar apparently straddles the line between the two states and having an abundance of both alcohol and mullets it just seemed to make sense.

Going on for twenty plus years, the bar's owner calls it just "a silly excuse for a huge beach party."

WHY I USE THE ATM

With only two tellers working at the bank, the line was moving very slowly. As the man waited, he began to fill in his withdrawal slip.

Not sure of the date, he turned and asked the woman behind him.

"It's the fifth," she replied.

A man from the back of the line advised, "I wouldn't write it in just yet!"

PANDEMIC FRAUD AND SCAMS

The Covid pandemic has been a pot of gold for thieves and scammers who want to exploit the critical needs of hospitals and doctors. As usual, however, the criminals aren't too bright. There was the medical supply company that conspired to sell masks that were misbranded, trying to pass them off to hospitals as genuine National Institute of Occupational Safety and Health (NIOSH)-approved N95 masks. The thieves gathered up their fake masks from miscellaneous sources and shipped them off at inflated prices. When NIOSH tested the masks, the scam was discovered because the masks couldn't pass the filtration tests.

A whole alphabet of federal agencies, including the VA's Office of Inspector General, came together in this effort to investigate and prosecute the thieves. Between the price gouging, the fake masks and the interstate commerce, the authorities had a good case for pandemic-related defrauding and conspiracy.

When the case goes to court, selling misbranded medical equipment alone could net the thieves a fine of a half a million dollars. Adding in the interstate commerce and price gouging could tack on additional fines and years in prison.

Then there was the guy who tried to sell millions of dollars of personal protective equipment to the VA. The scam was pretending the company was an authorized distributor of the PPE. They even generated a fake website and email address. The goods that were sent out were non-conforming and the masks were counterfeit.

Another guy stole gloves and PPE and sold them for a cool million dollars. Another scammer stole the relief funds he received, diverting $180,000 of it for his own use.

In one scam, however, it almost wasn't worth the thief's time: A woman was given two paycheck protection loans for two businesses she owned -- except the didn't own a business. All she got out of the scam was $41,000.

When are they going to learn? The thieves eventually get caught, and we have the VA OIG and other alphabet agencies to thank for it.
