BULL

A Department of Agriculture agent stopped at a farm. After talking with the farmer for awhile about crop prices, the weather, etc he said,

"I'm here to inspect your farm."

The old farmer said, "Don't have no problem with that, just don't go in that field over yonder."

Bristling at this challenge to his authority, the government man said, "This may be your farm, but I'm from the Government. The badge I carry means I am allowed to go WHEREVER I WISH on any agricultural land!"

The old farmer thought about this for a moment, then nodding politely, went about his chores.

It wasn't too long before the farmer heard loud yelling and screaming coming from the field. The government agent was running for his life with a mean-looking bull right behind him. The bull was gaining on the agent with every step.

Seeing quickly the government man was running, the old farmer moseyed over to the fence and loudly shouted...

Moments in time

THE HISTORY CHANNEL

* On July 14, 1953, the George Washington Carver National Monument, founded by Franklin Delano Roosevelt and created by Audrey Corwin in 1952, was dedicated in Missouri. It was the first such site to honor a Black American as well as a non-president.

* On July 15, 1997, while on a killing spree, Andrew Cunanan murdered world-renowned Italian fashion designer Gianni Versace with two gunshots to the head on the steps outside Versace's Miami mansion before fleeing the scene. Eight days later, he was discovered dead by suicide on a houseboat 40 blocks from the designer's home.

* On July 16, 1769, Father Junipero Serra, a Spanish Franciscan missionary, founded the first Catholic mission in California in what is present-day San Diego. After blessing his new outpost in a high mass, the Royal Standard of Spain was unfurled over the mission, which Serra christened San Diego de Alcalá.

"And it's being offered with this alternative fuel option!"

HUMAN ANGER DOES NOT PRODUCE THE RIGHTEOUSNESS THAT GOD DESIRES - JAMES 1:20

* On July 17, 1945, President Harry S. Truman recorded his initial impression of Joseph Stalin in his diary, describing their first meeting, a discussion of post-World War II policy in Europe, as "cordial" and closing the entry with the words, "I can deal with Stalin. He is honest, but smart as hell."

* On July 18, 1986, new close-up videotapes of the sunken ocean liner Titanic, taken from the first manned expedition to the wreck and showing one of the ship's grand staircases and a coral-covered chandelier, were released to the public.

* On July 19, 1952, air traffic controllers in Washington, D.C., detected UFOs over the White House and U.S. Capitol building. More appeared a week later, but the government dismissed the sightings as just a harmless weather phenomenon.

* On July 20, 1923, Mexican revolutionary Pancho Villa died in a storm of 40 bullets while driving through Parral, Mexico. He was buried the next day, but three years later the grave was dug up and his skull was stolen. Officially, the identity of the robber remains a mystery, as does that of the person who ordered the assassination.

Apache Junction Chamber of Commerce "2011 Small Business of the Year Award Winner"

Changes, they are a comin'. I know it sounds like a lyric to a song.

I'm telling my friends and clients that they need to be as ready as they can. You must do everything you can to earn more income this year. Costs are going up again and for the foreseeable future.

it's time for a shift in mindset. The old adage is: Sales solves all problems. The new adage is: More income sources create a better future and remove your pain.

The old way of thinking is that your income comes from your job, plus whatever you can bring in from a second or third job, or side hustle.

Now, it's a different story. Today, each of us has more side hustle opportunities. Working online you have even more.

To be transparent, I have 17 different sources of income. Of course, some perform better than others.

Make Money On Purpose

"Digital Product Income" with Mike Lamb

Three months ago, I added a source which has already earned me over $11,300.

Last year a part-time consulting client paid me $9,664. That will likely increase this year.

In the last quarter of 2024, contracted with another company that pays me 1099 income, but give me the time and flexibility to work when I want.

My other income sources are from a list of referral programs offering online services or digital products. Almost every service I use in my digital marketing business pays me to promote them. Most are recurring monthly fees.

This is something almost anyone can do with nothing more than an Internet connection and a smart phone.

It's a new era and income generation. No limits on what you can promote and no boundaries or restrictions on what you can earn unless you're limited due to your level of Social Security.

To earn more income in today's world, you need to think differently. You must be open to extraordinary possibilities.

It's not uncommon for people who didn't have two nickels to rub together to earn massive monthly income.

The rules have changed for the better. Change your mind, take a genuine leap of faith, and see what's possible.

Next time, I'll share three examples to give a jump start on recurring income.

TIME TO GET AWAY

A man from back east decided to go to a Dude Ranch in Arizona. He knew he had to escape the hustle and bustle of big city life and get a new perspective. He checked into his room and immediately began looking over a list of activities. He decided to go on a trail ride, and went down to corral.

When he got there, the wrangler asked the man, "What kind of saddle do you want?"

"What do you mean," asked the guest.

"Well," replied the cowboy, "do you want one with or without a horn?"

"Without is fine, replied the tinhorn, "There doesn't seem to be much traffic out here."

WHAT IS LOST WILL BE FOUND

A devout cowboy had lost his Bible while he was out on the range. He felt awful and missed his daily devotions terribly.

Three weeks later a cow walked up carrying the Bible in it's mouth. The cowboy couldn't believe his eyes. He took the book out of the cow's mouth, raised his eyes heavenward and exclaimed, "It's a miracle!"

"Not really," said the cow, "your name was written inside the cover."

Fun Fact

A pineapple is neither a pine nor an apple, but a fruit consisting of many berries that have grown together. The Tupi people of Brazil cultivated and used the fruit extensively for food, fermentation into wine and to make poison arrows from its leaves.

THE SOLUTIONS

There was once a small boy who banged a drum all day and loved every moment of it. He would not be quiet, no matter what anyone else said or did. Various attempts were made to do something about the child.

One person told the boy that he would, if he continued to make so much noise, perforate his eardrums.

A second person told him that drum beating was a sacred activity and should be carried out only on special occasions.

The third person offered the neighbors plugs for their ears;

A fourth gave the boy a book;

A fifth gave the parents books that described a method of controlling anger through biofeedback;

And a sixth person gave the boy meditation exercises to make him placid and docile.

None of these attempts worked. Eventually, a wise old man came along with an effective motivation.

He looked at the situation, handed the child a hammer and asked,

"I wonder what's inside the drum?"

VETERANS
★ POST ★

by Freddy Groves

HELP FOR HOMELESS VETERANS

Organizations across the country that help homeless veterans are set to share in grants that total $42 million. Each grant, if approved, can be worth as much as $500,000 and will fund them for two years, beginning in October.

The grants, through the VA's Legal Services for Veterans Grant Program, will help organizations that assist veterans with custody and child support problems, help veterans get their benefits, run interference with tenant-landlord issues and more. All of these services are for the purpose of helping homeless veterans or those who are in danger of becoming homeless.

Last year there were over 32,000 homeless veterans. Though that number is a bit smaller than the previous year, it's still too big. Once a veteran is homeless, because of substance abuse, mental health issues, eviction, job loss or any other reason, it's difficult to break the cycle without help.

If you're a homeless veteran or if you're in danger of becoming homeless, help is as near as your phone.

Call the VA medical center nearest you and ask for the homeless coordinator. To find the nearest VA facility to you, go to www.va.gov/directory.

Call the National Coalition for Homeless Veterans at 1-800-VET-HELP (838-4357). They can help with substance abuse and mental health counseling, job training and placement, health care and permanent housing.

You might qualify for a voucher through the VA Supportive Housing (VASH), where they pay part of your rent directly to the landlord. The goal of the program is to get veterans into permanent housing and hooked up with support services so the housing remains stable, all with the help of a case manager.

Call the homeless veteran hotline at 877-424-3838 to talk to a trained counselor. They're open 24/7, and the call is free and confidential. If you need help now or will in the near future, don't wait until the last minute. Reach out as soon as you suspect you're going to be homeless.
