A newly arrived immigrant from Europe went to the DMV to apply for his first driver's license as an American citizen. He had studied hard and passed the written exam with flying colors. Then, he had to take an eye sight test. The optician showed him a card with the letters: 'C L A W Z S A R M I O K.'

"Can you read this?" the optician asked.
"Read it!" the man replied, "I know the guy."

WHAT LUCK!
A woman came home, screeching her car into the driveway, and ran into the house. She slammed the door and shouted at the top of her lungs, "Honey, pack your bags. I won the lottery!"

The husband said, "Oh my gosh! What should I pack, beach stuff or mountain stuff?"
"Doesn't matter," she said. "Just get out."

BARKING UP THE WRONG TREE
The cops came to my door today to say that my dog was chasing someone on a bike. I told them they had the wrong house because my dog doesn't even own a bike!

NO RELATIONSHIP IS ALL SUNSHINE, BUT TWO PEOPLE CAN USE THE SAME UMBRELLA

I WAS ALWYAS TAUGHT TO RESPECT MY ELDER S AND I'VE NOW REACHED THE AGE WHEN I DON'T HAVE ANYBODY TO RESPECT ANYONE
If Ailing Find Yourself a “Health Buddy”

How many of us walk away from our doctor appointments feeling completely informed, able to articulate with our loved ones what was discussed, and satisfied that we know exactly what our game plan is for managing whatever is ailing us? Do you take a list or notebook to the doctor that itemizes the questions you have and the answers you receive? It’s time to start, no matter what your age, especially if you are dealing with any kind of a health issue.

Find a “health buddy” to go to the doctor with you. This may be a hard concept to undertake because it involves privacy issues, personal information and perhaps a sense of independence loss. It also may make your situation more real by bringing it out in the open. However, we need to have objective eyes and ears to assist with hearing what is really happening. When we aren’t feeling well, especially when we are scared and are struggling to get through the moment, we focus on what we want to hear, what we think we’re going to hear, or not really registering all that is being said.

A spouse may be our obvious choice, but our buddy needs to be in good cognitive health. Consider also a close friend, sibling, trusted neighbor with whom you feel comfortable. Consider someone that feels the same way about you so you can listen and advocate for each other. If you already have an ideal situation for yourself, offer your time to someone who may not have someone to assist them.

Write your questions down and take them to the doctor with you. Your health buddy is responsible to make sure all the questions get asked and the answers recorded. Take time after the appointment to go over everything that was discussed, sort it out, and write down the game plan you need to undertake to manage your current situation.

On April 10, 1866, the American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals is founded in New York City by philanthropist Henry Bergh, who pleaded on behalf of abused workhorses. By the time Bergh died in 1888, 37 states had passed anti-cruelty laws.

On April 12, 1633, the inquisition of physicist and astronomer Galileo Galilei begins. Galileo was ordered to turn himself in for holding the belief that the Earth revolves around the Sun. At the trial, he was sentenced to three years in prison and ordered to recite once a week the Seven Penitential Psalms.

On April 6, 1896, the Olympic Games are reborn in Athens 1,500 years after being banned by Roman Emperor Theodosius I. A crowd of 60,000 spectators welcomed athletes from 13 nations to the international competition.
On April 9, 1959, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) introduces America's first astronauts: Scott Carpenter, L. Gordon Cooper Jr., John H. Glenn Jr., Virgil "Gus" Grissom, Walter Schirra Jr., Alan Shepard Jr. and Donald Slayton. The seven men were selected to take part in Project Mercury in 1961.

On April 8, 1935, Congress votes to approve the Works Progress Administration, a central part of President Franklin Roosevelt's "New Deal," an expansion of the federal government as an instrument of employment opportunity and welfare. The WPA employed more than 8.5 million people on 1.4 million public projects before it was disband ed in 1943.

On April 11, 1961, Bob Dylan plays his first major gig in New York City, opening for bluesman John Lee Hooker at Gerde's Folk City. Dylan was too young to obtain the necessary union card and cabaret license needed to appear on a regular bill at Gerde's. One of the club owners, Mike Porco, signed as Dylan's guardian.

On April 7, 1970, the legendary actor John Wayne wins his first -- and only -- acting Academy Award, for his performance in "True Grit." Wayne appeared in some 150 movies over the course of his long and storied career.

THE ILLUSTRATED BIBLE

He himself bore our sins
in his body on the cross,
so that we might die to sins and live for righteousness;
by his wounds you have been healed.
