CHEW TOY

My dog chewed the tongue on one of my new, very expensive leather shoes.

I hoped to save my investment, so I took them to a shoe repair shop. I placed them on the counter and told the man, "My dog got hold of this."

The repairman picked up the shoe, looked it over, and placed it back down on the counter.

"Well, what do you recommend?" I asked.

He replied, "Give your dog the other shoe."

ZORRO SAVES A BLONDE

Zorro was having a small identity crisis, so he went looking for someone to save. He came upon a blonde woman being robbed by bandits in a woods.

A Swish, a stab, and a few more swishes and the blonde was safe from danger.

Afterwards, Zorro cut a "Z" into a tree. Then he said: "so, do you know who saved you?"

"Sure I do," replied the blonde, "I was saved by... Superman!"

Moments in time THE HISTORY CHANNEL

* On Oct. 6, 1927, "The Jazz Singer," a part-talkie film featuring six songs by Al Jolson, debuted in theaters, marking the end of cinema's silent film era even though it only contained about two actual minutes of synchronized dialogue.

* On Oct. 7, 1944, several hundred prisoners in the Nazi death camps of Auschwitz-Birkenau revolted and destroyed most of the gas chambers and crematoria in which they were forced to work. A small number of Nazi officers were killed in the struggle, but after a brief escape, the perpetrators were captured and executed.

* On Oct. 8, 1871, the Peshtigo Fire, today considered the most devastating fire in American history, started in Wisconsin, killing about 1,200 people and consuming 2 billion trees. Despite its massive scale, however, the smaller Great Chicago Fire, which began later that night, dominated newspaper headlines over the next days.

SHOUTS OF JOY AND VICTORY RESOUND IN THE TENTS OF THE RIGHTEOUS - PSALM 118

* On Oct. 9, 1635, Roger Williams was banished from the Massachusetts Bay Colony by the General Court of Massachusetts for protesting the right of civil authorities to punish religious dissension and to confiscate Native American land. He went on to found present-day Providence, Rhode Island, with assistance from the Narragansett tribe.

* On Oct. 10, 1973, less than a year before Richard M. Nixon's resignation as President of the United States, his vice president, Spiro Agnew, resigned in disgrace, pleading no contest to a charge of federal income tax evasion in exchange for dropped charges of political corruption. He was fined $10,000, sentenced to three years' probation, and disbarred by the Maryland Court of Appeals.

* On Oct. 11, 1962, Pope John XXIII convened an ecumenical council of the Roman Catholic Church for the first time in 92 years, in the hope of bringing a spiritual rebirth to Catholicism as well as fostering greater unity among other branches of Christianity.

➤ On Oct. 12, 1945, Private First Class Desmond T. Doss of Lynchburg, Virginia, became America's first conscientious objector to receive the Medal of Honor for outstanding bravery as a combat medic.

There's never been a more critical time for you to think about becoming self-sufficient.

With the cost of everything going up, it's time to focus on earning more instead of worrying about having to spend more. I can tell you it's a lot more fun.

It does not matter your age or what you're doing to earn a living. Retired or not, it's time for you to start thinking about multiple income streams. It has a nice ring to it, doesn't it?

Now, think about what it can mean for you. Multiple income becomes more income. More income gives you more options.

Stop thinking about why you can't have multiple incomes because you can. It just takes a little knowledge and a little action.

All you have to do is figure out what works, then rinse and repeat. It's really that simple.

I want to share one of my multiple income sources with you. It's an online software service I use to host my websites and a few clients, plus automate all of my social media.

Make Money On Purpose

"More Income Anyone?" with Mike Lamb

I subscribe to this service for $297 a month, to build and host unlimited websites and landing pages.

One of the other benefits is the ability to white label the software and sell it as my own. This is huge and opens up an entirely new income stream for me or anyone.

When I share all the benefits of this amazing software I tell them my cost of $297 a month, but then reveal they can use the exact same software under my white label brand for $1,397 a year. A savings of $2,167. Over two thousand dollars cheaper.

They get everything I get and use, except for the white label option. Most are ecstatic and sign up.

I even throw in six months of coaching on how to use the software and create income with it.

I believe we'll have at least 50 users this year alone at $1,397 each.

My estimate of 50 users is based on our amount of promotion and marketing. At some point, I expect to have 1,000 or more users, earning us $1,397,000 annually.

That's a simple formula for a million-dollar income without breakin' a sweat and mostly hands-free. This is something anyone can do. No skills needed.

As a digital marketing coach, I'm constantly seeking out and keeping my eyes open for opportunities like this one.

If you're interested in exploring other income options or if you want to know more about my white-label website software and all the bells and whistles for only $1,397 a year, call me at (480) 349-7842 or send me an email at mikelambmedia@gmail.com.

Strange
BUT TRUE

By Lucie
Winbourne

* The first round of women's golf was played in 1811 -- four centuries after the sport was invented.

* Sloths might be the only mammals that don't fart.

* Austrian-American composer Arnold Schoenberg feared the number 13 so intensely that he deliberately misspelled his opera "Moses und Aron" to have 12 letters instead of 13. He also died on July 13, 1951, which would seem to confirm his phobia.

* Almost all of the first major television networks -- NBC, ABC and CBS -- still exist today, but the second network to get off the ground, the DuMont Television Network, is mostly forgotten, though it aired the first two seasons of "The Honeymooners" and "Mary Kay and Johnny," which is widely considered to be the first sitcom.

* Believe it or not, May is Zombie Awareness Month, which celebrates zombie media and recognizes ways to prepare for a zombie apocalypse. Participants are encouraged to wear gray ribbons to spread awareness of the potential dangers of the undead.

* In 2023, North Dakota was named the best state for surviving a zombie apocalypse.

* We obtain 60% of our energy intake from just three plant species -- rice, wheat and maize.

* Spiders recycle webs by eating them.

* The sitcom "30 Rock" was known for its fast-pace writing, with one reporter calculating in 2014 that there was an average of 7.44 jokes per minute.

* After "It's the Great Pumpkin, Charlie Brown" first aired in 1966, Charles Schulz's California office was inundated with shipments of candy sent from kids who were upset that Charlie Brown only got rocks in his Halloween goodie bag.
