BULL

A Department of Agriculture agent stopped at a farm. After talking with the farmer for awhile about crop prices, the weather, etc he said,

"I'm here to inspect your farm."

The old farmer said, "Don't have no problem with that, just don't go in that field over yonder."

Bristling at this challenge to his authority, the government man said, "This may be your farm, but I'm from the Government. The badge I carry means I am allowed to go WHEREVER I WISH on any agricultural land!"

The old farmer thought about this for a moment, then nodding politely, went about his chores.

It wasn't too long before the farmer heard loud yelling and screaming coming from the field. The government agent was running for his life with a mean-looking bull right behind him. The bull was gaining on the agent with every step.

Seeing quickly the government man was running, the old farmer moseyed over to the fence and loudly shouted...

Moments in time

THE HISTORY CHANNEL

* On July 14, 1953, the George Washington Carver National Monument, founded by Franklin Delano Roosevelt and created by Audrey Corwin in 1952, was dedicated in Missouri. It was the first such site to honor a Black American as well as a non-president.

* On July 15, 1997, while on a killing spree, Andrew Cunanan murdered world-renowned Italian fashion designer Gianni Versace with two gunshots to the head on the steps outside Versace's Miami mansion before fleeing the scene. Eight days later, he was discovered dead by suicide on a houseboat 40 blocks from the designer's home.

* On July 16, 1769, Father Junipero Serra, a Spanish Franciscan missionary, founded the first Catholic mission in California in what is present-day San Diego. After blessing his new outpost in a high mass, the Royal Standard of Spain was unfurled over the mission, which Serra christened San Diego de Alcalá.

HUMAN ANGER DOES NOT PRODUCE THE RIGHTEOUSNESS THAT GOD DESIRES - JAMES 1:20

* On July 17, 1945, President Harry S. Truman recorded his initial impression of Joseph Stalin in his diary, describing their first meeting, a discussion of post-World War II policy in Europe, as "cordial" and closing the entry with the words, "I can deal with Stalin. He is honest, but smart as hell."

* On July 18, 1986, new close-up videotapes of the sunken ocean liner Titanic, taken from the first manned expedition to the wreck and showing one of the ship's grand staircases and a coral-covered chandelier, were released to the public.

* On July 19, 1952, air traffic controllers in Washington, D.C., detected UFOs over the White House and U.S. Capitol building. More appeared a week later, but the government dismissed the sightings as just a harmless weather phenomenon.

* On July 20, 1923, Mexican revolutionary Pancho Villa died in a storm of 40 bullets while driving through Parral, Mexico. He was buried the next day, but three years later the grave was dug up and his skull was stolen. Officially, the identity of the robber remains a mystery, as does that of the person who ordered the assassination.

Changes, they are a comin'. I know it sounds like a lyric to a song.

I'm telling my friends and clients that they need to be as ready as they can. You must do everything you can to earn more income this year. Costs are going up again and for the foreseeable future.

it's time for a shift in mindset. The old adage is: Sales solves all problems. The new adage is: More income sources create a better future and remove your pain.

The old way of thinking is that your income comes from your job, plus whatever you can bring in from a second or third job, or side hustle.

Now, it's a different story. Today, each of us has more side hustle opportunities. Working online you have even more.

To be transparent, I have 17 different sources of income. Of course, some perform better than others.

Make Money On Purpose

"Digital Product Income" with Mike Lamb

Three months ago, I added a source which has already earned me over $11,300.

Last year a part-time consulting client paid me $9,664. That will likely increase this year.

In the last quarter of 2024, contracted with another company that pays me 1099 income, but give me the time and flexibility to work when I want.

My other income sources are from a list of referral programs offering online services or digital products. Almost every service I use in my digital marketing business pays me to promote them. Most are recurring monthly fees.

This is something almost anyone can do with nothing more than an Internet connection and a smart phone.

It's a new era and income generation. No limits on what you can promote and no boundaries or restrictions on what you can earn unless you're limited due to your level of Social Security.

To earn more income in today's world, you need to think differently. You must be open to extraordinary possibilities.

It's not uncommon for people who didn't have two nickels to rub together to earn massive monthly income.

The rules have changed for the better. Change your mind, take a genuine leap of faith, and see what's possible.

Next time, I'll share three examples to give a jump start on recurring income.

Strange
BUT TRUE

* Squirrels play a role in reforestation by forgetting some of the buried nuts and seeds they store, which then sprout into new trees.

* In late 1800's Australia, some desperate sufferers of rheumatism climbed into a whale carcass in their search for relief, and were told to remain there for 20-30 hours, with occasional breaks. The heat and gases emitted by the decomposing animal were believed to create a sweat box of healing compounds.

* Acrylic nails were invented in 1957 by a dentist experimenting with how to create an artificial fingernail to protect his thumb after he'd accidentally cut it.

* In 1980, Detroit gave Saddam Hussein a key to the city out of recognition of donations he had made to local churches.

* School desks have 300 times more bacteria than a toilet seat.

* Marion Donovan created the first practical disposable diaper in 1950 by using shower curtains for plastic covering and layers of tissue as the inner absorbent material.

* Uranus rotates on its side, appearing to roll around the sun like a ball, according to NASA. The most likely explanation for this unusual orientation is that it experienced some type of massive collision in ancient times.

* American Christians are more likely to take "morally neutral" risks when they think about God as a benevolent protector.

* The Inuit people used goggles made from bone, wood or other hard material to protect their eyes from UV rays more than 2,000 years ago, designed to cover the eye while leaving a small slit to see through. The slit narrowed and sharpened the wearer's field of vision while protecting their eyes from snow glare.
